

Bergen County Speech, Language, and Hearing Alliance

Case Studies in Ethics & Supervision: A Framework for Difficult Conversations

Cathleen Givney, MS, CCC-SLP and Brittany Khan, MS, CCC-SLP

March 29, 2022 – 6:15pm – 9:15pm
Online Zoom Webinar

In this course, Cathleen Givney, MS, CCC-SLP and Brittany Khan, MS, CCC-SLP will present the basic principles of ethical decision making in speech-language pathology as it relates to student supervision. A case study model will be utilized in order to foster conversations regarding “real world” student dilemmas and ethical management of student supervision concerns.

Learning Objectives:

Attendees will be able to:

1. Describe the basic principles of ethical decision making.
2. Explain, using a case study model, student dilemmas and ethical management of student supervision.
3. Discuss difficult conversations in speech-language pathology

Timed Agenda:

6:00pm – 6:15pm – check in/tech check

6:15 – 6:45 – Ethical Frameworks in SLP

6:45 – 7:15 – Case Studies in Ethics

7:15 – 7:30 – break

7:30pm – 8:00pm – Clinical Supervision 101

8:00pm – 8:30 pm – Case Studies in Clinical Supervision

8:30pm – 9:00pm – Difficult Conversations in Speech Language Pathology: Using our Tools

9pm - 9:15pm - Q+A

Cathleen Givney MS CCC-SLP

Financial Disclosures: Salaried specialist professor at Monmouth University; receive honorarium for this presentation

Non-financial Disclosures: None

Brittany Khan MS CCC-SLP

Financial Disclosures: Salaried Clinic Director at Monmouth University; receive honorarium for this presentation

Non-financial Disclosures: none

To register visit: www.bcslha.org

ASHA CE
APPROVED PROVIDER

Bergen County Speech
Language Hearing Alliance

Intermediate Level
.25 ASHA CEUs